

ACOUSTICAL (STC) FRAMES

VT tests acoustical doors in fully grouted metal frames to ensure the transmission loss data was reflective of the operable door (door, hardware, seals). It is up to the contractor and acoustic consultant to determine the frame installation that best meets the design and performance requirements. VT does not supply or specify acoustical frames. VT is unable to provide specific frame installation instructions.